Lights, camera, action!

On Wednesday, March 3, the MVCCC enjoyed a wonderful mixer hosted by Mae Ross at her

3-2-1 Talent Studio in La Crescenta (Palms Plaza, 3131 Foothill Blvd., La Crescenta). Mae Ross has been an acting coach and talent showcase producer for 18 years. For the past two years, she has brought her abundant talents to our community and helped kids and young adults increase their confidence and self esteem by unlocking their hidden acting potential. Some of these kids have been even going further and hitting the big time on screen. Allen Evangelista (Henry Miller on ABC Family's The Secret Life of the American Teenager) and Julia Ling (Anna Wu on NBC's Chuck) are just some of the scores of young talent that Mae Ross has mentored. If you know a kid who would love to glow in that limelight, the 3-2-1 Talent Studio is offering a free introductory on-camera class for prospective acting students. If you've been getting that itch to act, Mae Ross and 3-2-1 Talent Studio is there to scratch it. Who knows? Maybe I should give Mae a call, too. I hope the MVCCC won't mind it too much if I moonlight as a matinee idol. I can see it now - I'll be this century's William Powell or Robert Taylor!
