Getting holiday ready

The Chamber recently enjoyed a ribbon cutting/grand opening with new member La Perla Design Gallery. As you begin to think about the holidays (you know it's crossing your mind), go check out this store. They have amazing items that are just beautiful. They are located at 2315 Honolulu Ave. in Montrose.

I sure hope you were able to get by the Super Mixer last week at Oakmont Country Club, hosted by several Chambers and other organizations here locally. Watch for the next one in the spring; you want to be in a room networking with a couple hundred prospects, right?
